Incredibly Uniquely Indian

THE TALE OF SAGE LIVING

Our Company

Established in 2018 as the result of the entrepreneurial vision of Keerthi Tummala, the company has built its success on the ability to represent the potential of Indian craftsmanship by creating products that consistently push all known boundaries. Having a stronghold in design and being backed by a wide network of top-class manufacturing, Sage has created a niche for itself with its clearly identifiable design and style.

The brand's aesthetic is minimal, timeless, and carry's a universal design appeal. The brand specializes in luxury lifestyle products that include furniture, lighting, and home décor. Sage works closely with architects, designers, stylists, and retailers across the globe to understand and bring their design vision to life through the brand's bespoke services.

KEERTHI TUMMALA
Founder and Creative Director

After a decade of immersion in diverse realms of design and retail for global luxury brands, Keerthi Tummala, stumbled upon another passion—creating and manufacturing designs that celebrate the rich craftsmanship of India. In 2018, fueled by a newfound purpose, she embarked on a mission to establish a lifestyle brand that proudly bears the “Made in India” insignia. Her faith extends beyond mere form and function, embracing the profound importance of emotion. The process propelled her to fashion a brand that not only reflects but also inspires the essence of thoughtful artistry. The brand’s services include Annual collections of furniture and products sold online, bespoke commissions, and full interior concepts and design services. The brand caters to clients worldwide who appreciate the intricate artistry and craftsmanship embedded in each creation. Essentially, the brand’s products encapsulate the storytelling prowess of the human hand, crafting narratives that resonate with the heart. She aptly terms her approach as “Artisanal & Soulful.”

MEET DESIGN, OUR FIRST LOVE

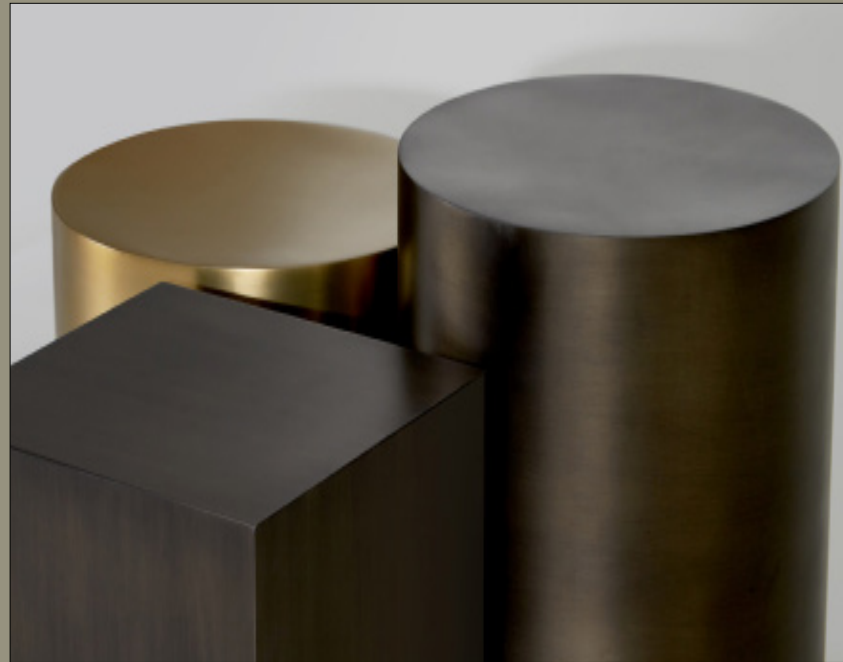

In- House Design Team

The truth to great design is honesty. Honest to the craft, honest to the material, and honest to your taste. We invest time and thought into the design language every product embodies to create pieces that always stay true to themselves. Drawing upon extensive backgrounds in Product Design, Architecture and Industrial Engineering, Sage Design Team keeps current on design trends from around the world in order to translate their findings into products with lasting appeal. After sourcing according to material subsets, craftsmanship and desired price point, all our prototypes are tested for fit, form and function. Obsessed with detail, we make products with character.

Product Development

Our minimalistic product designs complement every material’s innate beauty and allow them to stand out freely without overpowering one another. This helps us craft pieces that have character and an innate, immovable elegance. Our team constantly travels to factories to ensure our quality and manufacturing standards are exceeded. Sage Makes In India to bolster the potential of homegrown artisanship with the prowess of global manufacturing to create products that consistently push all known boundaries. We work with a diverse group of craftsmen to manufacture our lighting and furniture products, allowing us to benefit from their multiple perspectives.
